FROM REB DAVID

Dear Members and Friends,

A new season is an opportunity to renew ourselves on many levels. Am Kolel's programs and offerings this fall try to reach out to those who seek relevant Jewish learning, spiritual growth, belonging to community and shared ways to address social issues.

No matter who wins in the November election, it's up to us to direct our leaders and our institutions to be more compassionate and responsive to the ills and threats to our society and this world. Good leaders often have their best intentions eclipsed by distractions. We will also need to make better choices about how we want to live in this age of growing global insecurity, to more closely consider the kinds of food we eat, how often we use our cars, and which corporations and governments we support.

In the weeks and months ahead we will increasingly need each other to find ways to meet these challenges. The sages teach, "Al Tifrosh Min HaTzibbur,"- "Do not separate yourself from the community." So come join us for Shabbes, for a program at Sanctuary, for community service, and for fellowship. I look forward to seeing you.

May this season and this year be one of good health, joy and blessing for you and your family.

With joyful song,
Reb David

Am Kolel Adult Education With Reb David Fall 2008

9 Sessions

Wednesdays, beginning October 15
1719 Wimart Street, Rockville, MD

Moral Awareness in Judaism

7:00 – 8:15 PM

The class will review and discuss source literature on the worth of human life, the practice of compassion, abortion, homosexuality, euthanasia, suicide, ransoming captives, right livelihood, animal experimentation and the ethics of food.

Raising the Sparks

8:30 – 9:45 PM

Healing the body, mind and soul and universe through the teachings of Kabbalah. After a short overview of the history of Kabbalah, students will explore the core teachings of this profoundly engaging and revived tradition and its application today. About a third of the class will be experiential.

Fees for each class: $75 Members, $100 non-members. Texts not included.

Please register with coupon on page 13.

$ 100 Am Kolel Members

Please register with coupon on page 13.

Education for Our Children

Country Cheder at Sanctuary

Country Cheder, Am Kolel's hands on Sunday school for elementary age children, begins its second year. Under the direction of gifted educator Mat Tonti, the Cheder meets from 3:00pm to 5:00pm at the Am Kolel Sanctuary and Renewal Center in Beallsville, MD. The children are creatively engaged in learning Hebrew, Jewish customs, history, mitzvot and values. A program for Bar and Bat Mitzvah preparation is also available. Reb David meets with the parents throughout the year. For more information, contact the Am Kolel office at 301-349-2799.

Sunday School at BCC

If you live down county, consider the Kehila Chadasha Sunday School that meets at Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School. You do not need to be a member of Kehila Chadasha in order to enroll your child in the Kehila Sunday School. Also, Reb David is there most Sunday mornings.

In addition, Kehila sponsors a dynamic program for post Bar and Bat Mitzvah youth that includes seminars on social justice, comparative religion, sexuality, and current events. Machon students also have a Shabbaton retreat and go on field trips. For more information, see the Kehila website at www.e-kehila.org.

When There is Loss

One of the services that Am Kolel provides is guidance when there is loss in the family. In addition to Reb David there are several other Rabbis and Cantors on call in time of need. Reb David principally serves the members of Am Kolel and Kehila Chadasha. When non-members call we may refer you to another officiant.

Members of Am Kolel can also take advantage of the "funeral package" worked out between the Jewish Funeral Practices Committee of Greater Washington and the Hines-Renaldi Funeral Home. This can be a tremendous savings in cost. Please note that cremation is not a normative Jewish practice and is more costly than a traditional Jewish burial.

Our members and readers are encouraged to prepare for the inevitable. This will soften the often wrenching decision making family members and care providers may be confronted with if your wishes are not known. More and more people are preparing Living Wills. If you would like to discuss this further with Reb David or other Judaic life staff at Am Kolel please free to do so.

We can always use extra hands- whether in the office or out on the grounds. If you have time, please call the Am Kolel office at 301-349-2799 to see how you can help.

Special AM KOLEL Events in the Community

- October 18 11:00 PM PRAYER VIGIL FOR THE EARTH Reb David and members of Am Kolel participate in this weekend vigil for healing the earth and interfaith dialogue. Location: National Mall near the Washington Monument. Look for our Sukkah on the Mall. See www.oneprayer.org
- October 21, 7:30 PM COMMUNITY WIDE SIMCHAT TORAH CELEBRATION lead by Rabbi David Shneyer with Larry Paul and Rock Creek Klezmer at the 6th and I Historic Synagogue. Sponsored by Am Kolel, Sixth and I, Kehila Chadasha, Hill Havurah and other independent communities.
- November 20, 6:30 PM AM KOLEL FUNDRAISING DINNER AND CONCERT in honor of Reb David at the new Rockville Town Arts Center. See below for more information.
- December 20, 7:30 PM Saturday night - CHANUKAH KUMSITZ AND HUMAN RIGHTS Fair, Tifereth Israel Congregation, 16th and Juniper, NW, DC. Songfest with David Shneyer and special guests.
- December 22, 7:00 PM AM KOLEL MEMBERS' HANUKAH PARTY Location to be announced. Watch for updates in upcoming e-letter.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

MAKE FOR ME A SANCTUARY AND I WILL DWELL AMONG THEM”

Whether you define “sanctuary” as a consecrated spiritual place, or as a safe refuge, you will find our Sanctuary a place of peace and blessing. I have been privileged to live on these gorgeous grounds for 4 seasons now - each with its own unique beauty. We’d love to share it with you!

Come enjoy the ripe figs, berries and pears of summer, the blaze of gold and red in the fall, the cozy farmhouse in the briskness of winter or the glorious magnolias and dogwoods of spring. You can lounge on our huge deck, get a massage with Beckie, stroll our 28 magnificent acres and breathe the clean country air. And did I mention the starry skies at night?

Am Kolel hosts a monthly Open (to all) Shabbes here at Sanctuary, as well as several Jewish Renewal retreats each year. These gatherings are joyous and informal – a great place to meet new friends, relax, learn, celebrate and renew. You can be sure that a lot of song, laughter, good food and conversation will be an important part of the program!

There’s something for everyone at Sanctuary. You can come for a personal retreat or for a Lunch and Learn seminar. As I write, ten amazing young people (ages 12-16) are here for the weeklong Martin Buber Summer Kibbutz, and we are having a blast!

The rest of the year, Sanctuary is available for rental for private retreats, weddings, B’nai mitzvah, family reunions, staff meetings, and other occasions. So please tell your friends, family and colleagues about us. We are very happy to work with you to plan a wonderful event in this place of natural beauty.

Another important intention of Sanctuary is to support many different religious, ethnic and community groups seeking a natural setting for their gatherings, wellness and spiritual renewal. We have been delighted to host a variety of yoga and meditation retreats, Jewish groups, church groups, women’s retreats, as well as Buddhist monks and shamans.

Altogether, this makes our Sanctuary a unique treasure, and to my knowledge the only Jewish owned and operated ecumenical retreat center in the world!

In parashat Terumah, a portion of Exodus (in the Hebrew Bible) it says, “Asu li mikdash, v’shochanti b’tocham”... “Make for me a sanctuary and I will dwell among them”. This alludes to both a physical as well as an internal dwelling place. At Sanctuary, we aspire to provide you with a beautiful place for Spirit to dwell both around you and within.

Come experience Sanctuary!

L’shanah tovah u’metukah! Wishing you and yours a good and sweet year!

AMAZING RETREATS OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Among the many events held at Am Kolel Sanctuary, some groups offer retreats that are open to the public. These retreats provide opportunities for new experiences, for expanding present talents, skills and abilities, and/or to deepen your own practices with an intentional group.

Am Kolel Sanctuary's mission and vision is to provide an environment that honors body, mind and spirit, and to support groups seeking a natural setting for their gatherings, wellness and spiritual renewal.

Check out the upcoming retreats for Fall 2008 and see if something strikes your fancy! And if you know of groups looking for a beautiful space to hold a retreat or training, please guide them our way.

Please check the calendar page on our website, www.sanctuaryretreatcenter.com for more information.
